

---

Hun Kim

Acting Chief Partnerships Officer and Director General, Sectors, Themes and Finance Solutions Department

Hun Kim serves as the Acting Chief Partnerships Officer. In this role, he leads the development, management, and growth of the Bank's strategic partnerships; mobilizes the Bank's internal and external Special Fund resources; fosters collaborative relationships with global and regional stakeholders; and oversees the coordination of the Bank's hub offices.

Kim is also the Director General of the Sectors, Themes and Finance Solutions Department (STF), developing the technical excellence of the Bank's investment operations and expanding the Bank's operational knowledge across all sectors and themes in support of both sovereign and nonsovereign investment operations. Under his leadership, STF performs a proactive role in shaping the direction and impact of AIIB's investment operations. The department takes the lead in initiating and carrying out upstream work to cultivate expertise, support and incubate new initiatives in emerging technologies, provide advisory services for public-private partnerships, and promote growth in other productive sectors. Previous to his appointment, Kim played a pivotal role in building AIIB's social infrastructure portfolio from the ground up. Kim is a seasoned development professional who has built his skills and expertise throughout his long and successful career in the Asian Development Bank (ADB) where he has held various leadership positions, the last of which was Director General, South Asia Department. Prior to that, he was ADB's Country Director in India Resident Mission. He holds a Ph.D. in Applied Economics from the University of Minnesota, USA and an MA and BA in Economics from Yonsei University, Republic of Korea. Kim is from the Republic of Korea.