

Hwee Tin Kng

Chief Internal Audit Officer, Internal Audit Office

Hwee Tin Kng is the Chief Internal Audit Officer. She heads the Internal Audit Office, providing independent, risk-based, and professional assurance and advisory services to enhance and protect organizational value and improve the effectiveness of the Bank's governance, risk management, and control processes. She leads the development and implementation of the Bank's risk-based annual internal audit plan and its presentation to the Audit & Risk Committee. Under her leadership, the Internal Audit Office has taken the initiative to explore the application of artificial intelligence in its audit practice to enhance coverage, sharpen insight, and reinforce assurance quality.

Kng has over 30 years of experience in the financial services industry and real-estate investment sector. Before joining AIIB in June 2023, Kng was the Group Chief Risk Officer in CapitaLand Investments Ltd, a real-estate investment management company, and the CEO of Finance and Corporate Services of its China entity, where she successfully led the re-organization and automation of corporate functions and achieved greater efficiency and clarity of accountability. In addition, she was key in obtaining a stake in a public fund management company in China for the company. Prior to that, Kng was the CEO of OCBC Wing Hang Bank (China) Ltd and also held various leadership positions in OCBC Bank Group, including Head of Group Audit, Head of Consumer Risk Management, Head of Premier Banking, and Program Director of the Basel 2 Program. She holds a master's degree in business administration from the National University of Singapore and also attended the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School. Kng is from Singapore.